Delay in May Explained.

"The statement and opinion was expressed why an extra session should not be called in May, 1930, that it was a political year and would likely not secure desirable legislation on account of the different elements that were seeking an official office in the state. The statement was as follows: 'In view of the unanimous decision of the supreme court of the state of Georgia in approving the income tax, on Wednesday, April 16, and the desire of the governor to make further investigation into the act creating this tax, to determine the revenue that would likely be derived from this rourse." In view of the decision of the attorney general in regard to the constitutions of the state, I believe, with the study that has been made of the finances and of the state, I believe, with the study that has been made of the finances and of the state, I believe, with the study that has been made of the finances and of the state, I believe, with the study that has been made of the finances and of the state, I believe, with the study that has been made of the finances and of the state, I believe, with the study that has been made of the finances and of the state, I believe, with the study that has been made of the finances and of the state, I believe, with the study that has been made of the finances and of the state, I believe, with the study that has been made of the finances and of the state, I believe, with the study that has been made of the finances and of the state, I believe, with the study that has been made of the finances and of the state, I believe, with the study that has been made of the finances and of the state, I believe, with the study that has been made of the finances and of the state, I believe, with the study that has been made of the finances and other legislation; and other legislation; and other legislation; and other legislation in stitutions of the state, I believe, with the study that has been and other legislation in Ware Jury Absolves Mary Ricketson on Charge of Murder.

WAYCROSS, Ga., Dec. 16.-Mary Ricketson, charged with the murder of her husband, Preston Ricketson, young Ware county farmer, was acquitted by a Ware county jury today after a trial that had extended through after a trial that had extended through two 'days, The jury deliberated less than two hours.

Mrs. Ricketson admittedly killed her husband on September 19 at the home of Fenton Jordan, but contended the act was justifiable.

"I want to thank you all," she told the jury, after the verdict was read. When informed by Judge M. D. Dickerson that she was free to go home, she joined her aged mother in the courtroom audience, her nervous tears changed to a wreathing smile.

Self-defense and the doctrine of reaf-defense and the doctrine of reasonable fears constituted the defen-sive wall thrown around Mrs. Ricket-son by her attorneys. In her unsworn statement Mrs. Ricketson told a statement Mrs. Bicketson told a short, pointed story, void of any sensationalism or strained emotion.

She claimed her husband had beat her repeatedly, that she was in constant fear at his hands, that he had told her recently he "had to have a pistol," that on the night of the homicide she had here subjected to a second the state of the stat pistol," that on the night of the homicide she had been subjected to a severe beating, and that she shot in second what she believed to be self-defense when she killed her husband. This testimony was vigorously attacked by Solicitor Spence, his tactics being the impeachment of the witness, rebuttal witnesses telling the court they wouldn't believe Beulah Huelett "on her ath"

Supporting their claim that Ricketson had maltreated his wife, and that he frequently beat her and pro-vided for her in an inadequate way, number of witnesses were used by the defense. It was revealed that Mrs Ricketson, a short time prior to the homicide, had left her husband and had gone to her mother's, where she spent a week before being persuaded

What I Saw the Other Day. The other day I was out at the Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children. I passed through the finely equipped wards with the physician in charge and the nurses. When I realized how those young sufferers from congenital, or prenatal, or accidental causes were being rescued lovingly, tenderly and skillfully, and given "new birth," so to speak, I found myself saying over in my heart John Hay's words:

Little Boys--Big Boys--All Boys want a Coaster Wagon and this one is

But there's only seven days till Christmas; time enough to get it, but no time to waste

NOTE: In Atlanta and suburbs, where this coaster wagon is delivered to the winner at The Constitution office, only three new sixmonth subscriptions will be required. Outside of the city of Atlanta and suburbs the delivery will be made by express, charges collect, for only three subscriptions. Should four acceptable subscriptions, however, be secured, the coaster wagon will be sent express pressid.

NOTE RULES FOR SUBSCRIPTIONS— Each subscriber for the coaster wagon, must be new. A new subscriber is someone who is not now, and has not been, a subscriber, directly or indirectly, to the Daily and Sunday Constitution within 30 days prior to November 10, 1930. Do not waste time sending in the names of people who are already taking The Atlanta Constitution.

Stopping The Atlanta Constitution in a house for one family, or individual, and starting The Constitution right back for another family, or an individual, will not count. The switching of names or changing the address from the business address to the home address, or vice versa, will not count. Orders signed by minors will not be accepted. Orders signed by single men will not be accepted unless they are permanent residents of Atlanta and hold responsible positions. The Constitution reserves the right to finally accept or reject any subscription secured by any contestant.

Each order must be for a period of six months, and cannot and will not be cancelled during the life of the contract after once accepted. Orders received for less time than six months will not be accepted.

This offer is not open to employes of The Atlanta Constitution and immediate members of their families, to carriers or agents, or members of their families. Are you going to be without a new coaster wagon this Christmas when this opportunity presented by The Atlanta Constitution makes it possible for any boy to own this wonderfully made "Greyhound" wagon without paying a nickel?

ONSTITUTION GREYHOUND

And what a wagon it is! Every boy who has seen it wants one. Big, and sturdy with huge, oversize rubber tires—built throughout of heavy, high-grade material that'll stand rough wear and last long. It's the kind of a wagon that would cost from $10 to $12 if it were possible to find, but it is an especial job, so to speak—built for The Atlanta Constitution—not to be sold—but to be given absolutely free to boys who secure three new six months subscriptions to The Daily and Sunday Constitution.

The reward for such a small amount of effort is big and . once you get started you'll be astounded at how easy it is to get the required subscriptions No experience is required. Everybody knows The Atlanta Constitution and what it stands for, so with the help offered by our special instruction sheets mailed or given to you upon receipt of your enrollment coupon—you'll find your part easy. But get busy—don't wait longer. You still have plenty of time to get your wagon for Christmas. Clip your registration blank now — mail or bring it to The Atlanta Constitution.

The conference will be held at the Biltmore hotel and it is expected that approximately 200 dealers covering the entire southeast will attend. The party left Detroit on November 28 and is making a tour around the rim of the United States, covering more than 10,000 miles in three weeks. Going to Boston from Atlanta, the executives will then return to Detroit for the final meeting on December 22. "Our studies and first-hand observations of markets and conditions as we view them lead us to believe, said Mr. van DerZee, spokesman for the party, "that almost without exception from 85 to 90 per cent of the purchasing power of the country is infact. The 10 or 15 per cent that has been lost temporarily is represented by the reduction from normal employment which statistics show is only 10 per cent and is among factory workers mostly. The remainder of the loss in purchasing power comes of a portion, of the 90 per cent gainfully employed.

"This 10 to 15 per cent layer of reduction," continued Mr. van Derzee, who very sensibly declared that he had always been in the habit of following the advice of his mother." Records showed, he went on that the Missouri legislature ratified the eighteenth amendment in 15 minutes.

"It is possible to obtain as delegates to a constitutional convention a higher grade of men than on the average fill the halls of our state legislatures," Judge Clark said, and quoted Representative Luce:

"When (a man) is out of office his sole object is to attain it; and when he has attained it his only anxiety is to keep it. In his unprinciplet dread of losing his place he will readily go to all lengths."

"Manifestly," the judge observed. "none of these influences can affect the delegates to a constitutional convention and he can be disturbed by no hope of political gain or fear of political punishment."

A convention, the court wrote, either because of directly instructed or abler delegates is a better vehicle for the expression of public opinion than a state legislature, and "its ultimate acts will, because of this fact, command greater support."

Judge Clark pointed out that his decision today should not affect other amendments ratified by state legislatures. He related that the twelfth and seventh amendments affected the machinery of government; that the ninth and tenth were concerned with the reservation of rights and powers, and that the first eight, the fourteenth had tenth were concerned with the reservation of rights and powers, and that the first eight, the fourteenth had the inineteenth made of his maniferation by legislature was the nother of his part of political gain or fear of politic powers of the federal government; that the ninth and tenth were concerned with the reservation of rights and powers, and that the first eight, the fourteenth, the fifteenth and ten ineteenth contained limitations upon the power of the United States or of the states. Only the thirteenth, the slavery amendment, he believed had points of resemblance to the eighteenth.

"We believe it is distinguishable, however," continued Judge Clark, "because it strikes down the enslavement of human beings and operates directly upon the property laws of any states permitting that institution. It does not, as does the eighteenth amendment, contain a grant of power to regulate and prohibit certain acts."

Judge Clark said that in pondering the question before him he gave thought to why the eighteenth amendment had not been tested in relation to the "due process" clause of the fifth amendment, which is applicable to the United States. The fourteenth amendment, which is applicable to the United States. The fourteenth amendment, which is applicable to the United States. ## 25 PER CENT INCREASE URGED IN ADVERTISING

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 16 .- (Special.)-If every American advertiser today would consider the current business depression merely as a new form of competition for his markets and would meet it by a 25 per cent in-crease in his advertising appropri-ation, American business would make a startling recovery, according to the head of one of the world's three larg-est hotels.

This viewpoint was urged in an address here today before the annual convention of the Missouri-Kausas-Oklahoma Hotel Association by Ralph Hitz, managing director of the New Yorker hotel, Manhattan's largest hostelry, where close to 70,000 guests are accommodated every month. The New Yorker will have spent nearly half a million dollars, in advertising by the end of its first year next January I, the largest advertising appropriation for a single hotel in hotel history. Approximately $100,000, Mr. Hitz reported, was specially appropriated to meet competition from "the most successful advertiser in this country today—Business Depression."

"Let's forget that the business depression is some vague economic ghost—some cycle, or reactron or any other sort of generality," Mr. Hitz declared. "The depression, so far as American business is concerned, is a competitor. When a department store, a manufacturer, or the small retailer around the corner attempts to sell his merchandise, he runs into the strongest competition he has met in many years—the competition of our highly advertised depression. A large part of his market has been 'sold' on it. And that he faces a selling job is indicated by statistics which show that there is a tremendous latent buying power in this country right now—enough to bring back prosperity with a rush—but the 'davertising' of business depression has sold our markets away from us."

Mayson has drafted establishing the "Atlanta sewer district," a territory covering approximately 375 miles in and contiguous to the borough of Atlanta.

Persistent Job Rumors Pain Former Senator

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—(P)—
The many reports of jobs being offered former Senator Henry J. Allen, of Kansas, give him a "pain in the neck." He said so himself at the White House after a social call on President Hoover.
"In the first place," said the Kansan, "I don't want a job, I want a rest.

"In the second place, it is my gloomy opinion that I won't be offered any of the jobs people seem to think I should be offered, and that I should take."

bers of the Atlanta Rotary Club Tuesday at their luncheon meeting at the Capital City Club.

Dr. Brittain elected to talk on Spain because foaming revolts and general strikes throughout the land have put revolution on the tongue of every Spaniard and the sitation on the front pages of every newspaper in the world. He did not, however, go into the causes of unrest prevalent throughout the land.

"A great many persons believe that Spain's power was crushed because of the defeat of her proud armada," Dr. Brittain said. "However, the downfall had been evident then for a long time because of the inquisition in which Philip's father tried to make every person in, his empire of one religion. The inquisition drove out 600,000 industrious Saracens and some 200,000 industrious Saracens and some 200,000 industrious and farsighted Jews and when they left for other lands the supremacy of Spain left with them."

The Other Bullet

By Nancy Barr Mavity

"It is far from certain that Mrs. Everett killed Mortison, however convenient that might be." Peter said aseverely. "There's somebody else in on this. It may have been you—in which case you just about completed the mess you began. If June's happiness depends on Julio, it's quite on the cards that he may find it harder to marry the daughter of a murderess than a girl who was at the mercy of forces too powerful for her, under great provocation."

Peter watched for the effect of his words, but Mrs. Coak's compressed lips maintained their stern silence.

June shuddered and opened her light sais if those were under great provocation."

Poter watched for the effect of his sas if those with the mercy of forces too powerful for her, under great provocation."

Peter watched for the effect of his sas if those with the mercy of forces too powerful for her, words as if thinking sloud, "if June shot Mortison, your maternal feeling, however mistaken it has been in the past, is quite strong enough to make you shield her—especially as you be lieve that the killing of Montison, whooever did it, was quite justified. And June—"he turned to the girl, but she kept her head averted, staring, but he kept her head averted, staring, but he will be the window with unseeing eyes.

"If Julio killed Mortison, June will certainly realize her own responsibility for his act, and will protect him to the utmost of her ability. No matter who killed him, all three of you wanted to."

"I wish," June said dully, still staring out of the window, "I wish it staring out of the window, "I wish I was dead!"

For the first time Peter left his post by the door and crossed the room, crunching the spilled heans with unheeding feet in his progress. He laid a steady hand on June's shoulder and turned her, unresisting, to face him.

"Oh, no, you don't," he said firmly. "You," The word was a barely audible whisper.

"Yes." The word was a barely audible whisper.

"Yes." The word was a barely audible whisper.

"Yes." The word was a barely audible whisper.

"Yes."

"You'd still want to marry Julio, even if hed killed a man, would ryou?"
"Yes." The word was a barely audible whisper.
"Welh, he probably feels the same, "You are going to arrange for a returned to the waiting Bossy."
"Did you get anything?" Andrews roused himself to ask as Peter-leaped into the driver's seat.
"I got plenty." Peter was manifeatly disgruntled. "I've got three people who would have bumped of Mortison with a crystal clear conscience—and there's not as high moral tone to complicate a good plain murder. But there's not a should have bumped of material evidence against any of em. Whoever fired that other should have bumped of material evidence against any of em. ### Strib Seeks Relief For Injured Neck

W. I. Stribling, the fighting man, spent yesterday afternoon in Atlanta under treatment for an injury to neck muscles and will undergo further treatments today.

Stribling and Mrs. Stribling

Stribling and Mrs. Stribling drove here yesterday morning from Macon and were guests at the Winecoff hotel. In the evening they attended a show. Young Stribling said last night he had been in communication with his father who is in New York. Pa advised that he had posted a forfeit check to guarantee W. Perhaps after all it is not necessary to split the Southern conference. Delegates from 23 members make a more interesting convention than delegates from eight or ten would make. It gives a broader scope to oratory and a more spacious plane on which to maneuver politi-

Perhaps also the Southern conference in governing (after a ishion) college athletics over a vast territory has done some ood. The organization cannot be wholly bad no matter how bad it looks now and then on certain plays.

So, a league within the conference—a group of institutions with natural rivalry, approximately the same standards of eligibility and scholastic requirementscould be formed without prejudice to the larger body.

These institutions could be "a sleeper jump" apart and could play a certain number of games in each sport each year among themselves. If this league comprised institutions whose It was felt that the award was to be made on the basis of what the recipient was and what he had accomplished during the year and that, furthermore, Jones' attitude, in signing the movie contract had been entirely above board and marked by that "frankness and openness which always has been one of his characteristics"

HUMAN NATURE NOTE.

Atlanta newspaper men who, after the Griffiths fight in Chicago, wrote about Young Stribling's sore neck were chided in some quarters for offering an alibi for Strib.

An alibi for what? He won by a mile. Certainly he needs none for not knocking out Griffiths. Are fighters supposed to knock out all opponents? Yeah? How many times did Gene Tunney knock out Jack Dempsey?

Chicago newspapers the morning after the fight carried comment on the fact that Stribling had won in spite of a sore neck. Speaking for one Atlanta reporter, I did not know his neck was sore until after the fight. Pa Stribling kept it absolutely quiet this time for fear the news would reach the Griffiths camp. He scooped at least one of us.

Fight critics in Chicago, who seem to know more bout things fistic than those in any other sector, think Stribling is the best in the division.

But the home folks still refuse to believe that a product of the red clay can actually step along at the front of a ring class.

HARDER AND HARDER.

The going is getting tougher and tougher for Strib, now that he is at the top. He finds it progressively harder to beat a sportsmanship or amateur status. By his excellence of performance, retiring nature, disdain for acclaim, help-fulness to and generous spirit to-ing, Stribling knocked them out.

As soon as Stribling had established his real class, his opponents came in with one idea-to stay the limit. That meant something. They could not hope to win, but they could fight a defensive battle and earn some prestige.

So first DeKuh and then Griffiths met Strib and merely tried to stick in there. DeKuh never offered to lead. Griffiths led with his left and kept his right hand over his own jaw. The only time he used his right was to grab Strib's left arm and hang to it.

Griffiths could not win the fight, but he could go into a shell and ride out the storm. And if Stribling accepts another "warm up" fight, his opponent will do the same thing. So one understands why Pa Stribling declares his boy will not fight again until he gets a shot at the title, either with Schmeling or a man designated by the N. B. A.

ULTIMATUM.

Zipp Newman (Birmingham News) says this of Coach Wade's shake-up in his varsity lineup early this week:

Coach Wallace Wade fired a bombshell into the ranks of his football squad last week-end. He served notice on several of his regulars that they would be replaced by members of the Jarring Subalterns-a group of players considered by Alabama's opposi tion this fall as much stronger on the defense than the regulars.

The cause for Wade's maneuvers was furnished by the second team players in Saturday's scrimmage. They showed up the regulars, who carried the brunt of the burden against Georgia.

Coach Wade didn't reveal the names of the second stringers in line for promotion. He merely stated that he had to be shown his best starting lineup for the Washington State game. All of which should instill some bloody fighting notions into the minds of the regulars. It would be a pretty howdy-do for the regulars to have to watch the New Year hostilities from the bench.

The Alabama mentor stated the first of the week he anticipated getting in most of the hard work before entraining. Failure of the regulars to come through as expected means hours of hard practice in California. New assignments of positions will call for more detail coaching.

Fortunately the Alabama second team-Godfrey, Sanford, Dotherow, Tucker, Holley et al. - is so strong that Coach Wade can make good on his threats.

JONES DEFEATS BILL BARTUSH IN GREAT BOUT

Victory Evens Up Series Between Two-Middlekauff Wins.

Paul Jones defeated Bill Bartush Paul Jones defeated Bill Bartush Tuesday night at the auditorium in a wrestling match which was dramatic in the extreme. It was probably the most sensational ever offered in an Atlanta ring and saw the Texan lose the first fall and come back to win the next two. It evened the feud between the two.

Bartush took the first fall in quick time, pinning Johas after a series of time, pinning Johes after a series of flying tackles after just six minutes of action.

The second fall was won by Jones in what was probably the finest 42 minutes of wrestling ever seen in the ring. There wasn't a second when there wasn't desperate action in the ring. There wasn't a second when two weren't trying to pin one another.

the two weren't trying to pin one another.

"I've been watching wrestling for four or five years," said Commissioner Al Martin," and this is the best match I ever saw, one which hasn't a bit of stalling in it."

The third fall came quickly. Bartush rushed for a flying tackle and Jones sidestepped. Bartush crashed headlong into the ropes and as he bounced back Jones flung himself at him and hooked him with the "Figure 4" or the hook scissors. It was the same hold that had won the second fall. Bartush couldn't escape.

Both obtained many holds during the match. Jones showed some variations of the armlock that were very effective. One of them called for unlimited courage from Bartusb. His arm was rendered practically helpless but he refused to give up despite acute pain.

In the semi-windup Bill Middle-kauff, ex-Florida football star, won from Hans Bauer in a one-fall match. Flying tackles ruined Bauer. Middle-kauff showed remarkable improvement over his first match here and won additional friends by his really smart showing.

There are any number of them who will gross more than 200 pounds on the hoof, such as Your Uncle Dan McGugin, of Vander-bilt, and Frank Thomas, of Georgia and next year of Alabama. S. I. A. A. Adjourns Meet Which Saw Radical Shifts Made.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 16 .- (A) MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 16.—(47)—
The Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association adjourned a momentous convention here today. The session saw the formation of a new conference and heard talk of at least one more being in the making among the association's 36 members.

Soon after seven member colleges:

Soon after seven member colleges formed the Dixie conference, delegates discussed unconfirmed reports that the six S. I. A. A. members in South Carolina were considering a combination with schools in Georgia and Florida. From no official source came confirmation of the talk concerning an Atlantic seaboard conference. Delegates remembered that the South Car-

the admission of Murray State Teachers' College, also schedule many of their games among themselves and in would defeat the Giants by a fair-sized Southern, the conference president.

At today's closing session the S. I.
A. A. voted disapproval of any plan to permit freshmen to play in varsity games, revoked a decision to increase dues from $25 to $50, and required athletes to play their permitted three years of college football within five years.

The association attitude regarding freshmen was defined at the request of Louisiana and Georgetown colleges, whose representatives said some schools considered plans for playing freshmen in varsity games.

Adjourning, the delegates took with the warning of Dr. J. W. Provine, reelected president, that any "splitting off" of membership would be disas-trous to the association as a whole. He recalled that he became president soon after the members of the South-ern conference, the section's dominant collegiate athletic body, withdrew from the S. I. A. A. in 1922.

Over-Emphasis Charges Scouted; Charity Tilts Meet Disfavor.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 16.—(#)—Knute Rockne, here to speak at the annual Canisius College football dinner, said in an interview today that he did not believe college football was over-commercialized. He went so far as to say that "it is not commercial-"Football," he explained, "supports don their other athletic activities.

"I say football isn't commercialized enough because there are only about 25 out of 1,000 colleges making any real money out of it. Two colleges in the last three weeks have had to give up the sport."

Notre Dame's famous football coach does not believe in charity football games. He said: "There are enough rich men in this country who could casily open their purse strings and provide for charity, if they would. It isn't fair to ask college boys, who have probably played a hard season's schedule, to go out and play for charity. Few of our trusts and major industrial companies have done anything

THE NORTHWEST REPORTS.

ONE way and another, the northwest continues to keep in the picture. When the records of 1930 are checked up there will be at least two outstanding performances from that section—the record of the Washington State football team with the west coast championship in tow and the 28 or more records won by Miss Helene Madison, the Seattle

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec 16.—(P)—
Officials of the Memphis Tigers, professional football team, decided today to end their 1930 season immediately and to make application for admission nest year to the National Professional Football League.
Club officials said all games originally scheduled for this year had been played and, because of the prospects of unfavorable weather it was decided not to contract for additional games.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec 16.—(P)—
Mashington will go down in competitive history as one of the greatest ever made. And there is a big chance that she will keep on breaking records through 1931. There are no late reports yet on the Washington crew for 1931, but it is about time these oarsmen return for another victory.

TIME DEFIERS.

DEMPSEY AND 1931.

JACK DEMPSEY will go to New York in a few days and this should bring out his plans for 1931-the final word as to whether or not he will fight again.

The odds are that he won't, three years after his last start.

The one tempting point is the class of the heavyweight field, or the lack of class—plus the money he could rake in at a time when money is no longer hanging from wayside bushes. Dempsey has kept in good shape and even after a three-year rest he could annoy most of those now hanging around. But the three-year gap is a wide one, especially after one has passed 32 or 33.

Auburn, is quite wise in football ways. And Mike declares that any team making a long infersectional journey loses two touchdowns. Mike is very near the truth if, indeed, he isn't right at it. And Mike is sounding the alarm.

THEY'LL NEED POWER. It is quite unfair to the Crimson Tide to be making out the case for them before it comes to trial down there in the Rose Bowl arroyo. They'll eed everything that day. The ease with which Notre Dame murdered the Southern California Trojans discounted somewhat the victory of the Cougers over the same team.

In seeking to put the old cold analysis on the California football situation one must not fail to figure in the fact that California athletic folks are emminently satisfied with themselves and very fat-headed indeed when it comes to estimating themselves.

OVERCONFIDENCE.

OVERCONFIDENCE.

The Trojans had read in the papers so much where they were the supermen of the football world that they came to believe it, to some slight extent if not in entirety.

The publicity representative of Southern California has sent out a little review of the year. In commenting on the Washington State-Southern California game he declared that the Washington team was capable of playing an inspired football game and fighting back what a good team could offer. Any football team which can be inspired can beat a better football team.

Alabama, if the boys let the germ of overconfidence rattle around in their earlier for the life for earn a little hit might

SLIGHT FAVORITE. The Tide does figure as a favorite, but by no such margin as to announce them as easy winners some two weeks or more before the game. Coach Wallace Wade has established a magnificent record, one that re-flects credit on his entire section. He hardly deserves the extra load the boys are piling on.

If Coach Wade cares to call in a board of strategy on the trip he can do so very easily. There

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Dec. 16.- (AP) Riding in the drivers' seat occupied in the 1926 and 1927 games by the veterans Pooley Hubert and Red John "Hurry" Cain—will direct Alabama's attack in its Rose Bowl game with Washington State at Pasadena, Cal., on New Year's Day,

When Coach Wallace Wade took stock this year he found his greatest need to be a fullback who could step into the breach created by the gradua-tion of the All-American Tony Holm And then Wade hadn't been satis-fied with his quarterbacks for two

This boy Cain drew both assignments. Playing at a fullback position, he blasted the line, punted, passed, blocked and called the signals.

Cain, an accurate as well as a distance kicker, is the best punter Bama has had since the days of Grant Gillis. He rivals Bobby Dodd, of Tennessee, in the business of hitting a dime at 50 yards with his boots. Although a southpaw, Cain can pass with either hand. Alabama did little passing during the regular season, but Cain has practiced his tosses for long periods during the post-season training.

While Cain hasn't the mature quarterbacking judgment of the seniors, Hubert and Barnes, he has the fire of youth and thus far fortune has smiled on his choice of plays at crit-

A cursory glance back at the pre-vious elevens Alabama has sent to the coast shows teams better in some de-tails than the 1930 machine but probably not superior as an all round out-more, ends; Miller and Howard, guards; Eberdt, center.

The line was made up of such stars as Hagler, Pearce, Bowdoin, Pickard, Enis and Winslett.

This year's outfit is stronger in reserve strength than either of the previous Rose Bowl elevens from Tuscaloosa. Wade has a second team which probably would have made a good showing among most teams. The kicking is stronger than in 1927 but no better than 1926 when Gillis did the punting. And the passing is inferior to that done by Hubert in 1926.

Wade plans to finish off his train. Wade plans to finish off his training Thursday and will entrain with 85 players Friday for Pasadena, arriving there December 23 after making a short stop at Grand Canyon. There will be no work for the team en route.

'Gob' Now Second; ALL-STAR GAME

Individual Excellence Cannot Make Up for Lack of Team Play.

By Walter Trumbull.

(Copyright, 1999, for The Constitution by the North American Newspaper Alliance.) NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—The game between the New York Giants and the Notre Dame Stars in New York on Sunday again demonstrated that efficiency in sport is timing, stamina and constant practice.

When All-America elevens are being selected, you find few players chosen from Phillips University, Oklahoma City University, Nebraska Wesleyan, St. Johns, Grove City, Kansas Aggies, or Emporia Teachers. Yet, the team which swamped a crowd of former All-America men was gathered largely from such sources.

Sometimg in coercige team that I cannot to attain.

It is for this reason that I cannot see how a fighter such as Max Schmeling can stay out of the ring for the length of time he has and expect to come back to it in championship form. Dempsey, a far greater fighter than the German could ever be, couldn't to it. Schmeling won his championship sitting on the floor, and he has been sitting around somewhere ever since. It takes football games to make a football player and fights to make a fighter. Yes, the big assets are experienced and heart. Those former Notre Dame Stars held the Giants for three downs inside the five yard line. That one stand alone should yard line. That one stand alone should satisfy their admirers. Right there, they showed that quality known as class.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—There was a decided let-up in selling pressure in coton Tuesday. Liverpool cables were better than due reflecting improvement in Egyptians. Shorts, Liverpool and New Orleans bought, wire houses sold.

We advise extreme caution in placing sales at the present-price level and continue advising purchases on all breaks. Liverpool futures are due; January 5.08; March 5.17.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—The market was again a two-aided affair with comparatively wide swings in prices as the news favored one side or the other and a good close with some positions showing over 75c a bale advance.

Advance in all foreign markets and disposition of many recent sellers to cover gave market a good advance during the carly trading which exceeded a dollar a bale for some positions. The early rally in stocks was a contributing factor by indicating that the pessensism which has affected all markets might be passing.

Tuesday's very disappointing market,

FENNER & BEANE.

NEW YOBK, Dec. 16.-Selling was persistent in Tuesday's market, foreing the averages into new low ground. Supporting orders, which have been apparent in plyotal issues during recent sessions, were ineffective in stemming liquidation. Such buying, moreover, is evidently being conducted on a scale down and lacks sufficient aggressiveness to compensate for active pressure on the main body of stocks. Earlier selling was most pronounced in respect to the oils, but finally spread over the entire list. Doubtless, the markets violation of all previous resistance levels has tended to increase the confusion of sentiment concerning the immediate out.

Wheat was without backbone. Houses with connections southwest were conspicuous sellers, and reports were that snowfalls in sections of the winter wheat region had improved domestic crop prospects. NEW YORK, Dec. 16 .- (A)-Bonds esumed their downward course today and with the exception of some investment issues, particularly those in the carrier group were lower at the close of a very busy session.

Several score domestic and foreign oans were included in the crop of new 1930 lows which the day's trading brought. In both sections many changes were registered in points. The outstanding weak spots were domestic bonds that follow the trend of stocks and Latin American issues.

United States governments failed to maintain the advance which developed in Monday's session but the few changes that occurred were of the smallest variety.

More than a dozen stock privilege bonds reacted to new 1930 minimums and in many instances the losses were registered in points. The same was true of third-grade and speculative domestics. Even among the best grade issues there were many adjustments to the lower level established this month in infrequently traded obliga-

BY CHARLES W. STORM,

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.-(NANA) Fear and distress today again leveled prices of stocks. New low records were registered in practically all groups and liquidation poured onto the exchange from all parts of the country. The closing of eight banks in North Carolina, one in South Carolina and reports of trouble at Hartford were contributing causes to the weakness. The most discouraging feature of the market's action was that the volume increased with the decline. Selling continued heavy right up to the close when prices in most instances were around the lowest levels.

The meager clerical forces of the brokerage houses were busy until a late hour tonight sending out margin calls, indicating that further necessitious selling is expected to appear during the forenoon tomorrow. reports of trouble at Hartford were

INVESTMENT TRUSTS SELLING. Two of the largest and oldest investment trusts were reported as sellers of stocks throughout the session. A third investment trust was also re-ported as offering oil stocks in heavy talization of their companies.

Just as the investment trusts were responsible for the unusually higher prices registered during the big boom reason of their heavy purchases of shares, so is their heavy selling now causing the establishment of new low prices. At this time the investment trusts are considered a menace to the stability of the market. They have such large blocks of stocks that it is only with difficulty and at the expense of prices of their investments that they are able to liquidate.

expense of prices of their investments that they are able to liquidate.

BANK STOCKS BREAK,

Further sharp breaks in the prices of local bank stocks were a feature of the day's business. Most of these issues got down to new low levels for the year. Absorption of the bank stocks on the decline is reported to be good but the buyers are only taking the stocks at recessions in prices.

853 investment houses and banks offer and recommend Corporate Trust Shares.

ON December 31st holders of Corporate Trust Shares will receive another semi-annual cash distribution. This payment will be made against couper No. 4, by The Chase National Bank of the City of New York, Trustee, and by 38 banks acting as Paying Agents in principal cities throughout the country.

Including the forthcoming semi-annual payment, which will be in excess of 40c per share, as against the coupon base rate of 35c, Corporate Trust Shareholders will have received for the calendar year 1930 over $1.70 per share.

Thus, Corporate Trust Shareholders will have received total cash distributions amounting to more than $3.66 per

Three main factors contribute to this result: (1) the strength of the Corporate Trust Shares portfolio, (2) the fact that holders receive all earnings of the trusteed stocks plus interest on the cash reserve fund, and (3) the "maximum distribution" plan of operation, wherein all stock dividends, rights and extra shares from split-ups are sold and proceeds returned to holders of the trust shares.

Reinvestment Rights

Through the exercise of rights coupons attached to Corporate Trust Share certificates, holders who desire to reinvest that part of their distributions which may represent return of principal will be entitled to purchase additional Corporate Trust Shares at a discount during January, 1931. In other words, shareholders can either use their entire distributions for current needs or build up their invested capital in the trust by purchase of more shares at an advantageous price.

Thus Corporate Shareholders are always in a position to choose the "maximum distribution" plan or the "capital accumulation" plan to suit their needs from time to time.

BY CLAUDE A. JAGGER, NEW YORK, Dec. 16 .- (P)-The curb market was pounded further into new low ground in the first 1,000,000share day since November 10 today.

The oils were most conspicuously reak, several issues breaking sharply, in sympathy with petroleum issues transfers aggregated 1,030,500 shares, or 260,300 more than yesterday's.

or 260,300 more than yesterday's.

Vacuum Oil tumbled 11 1-2 points to 45 3-8, and closed at 47 1-8. As this carried the stock far out of line with the exchange agreement for merger with Standard of New York, which amounts to 1 Vacuum for 3 Standard, some apprehension was aroused over the prospect of concluding the merger, which has been questioned by the department of justice. Standard of New York closed on the big board at 20.

Cities Service dropped to a new low at 13 3-4, and closed at 14 1-4, off 1 1-2. Gulf and Standard of Nebraska dropped about 3, and Humble 5 points, to a new bottom price, Indiana sold off a point and closed off 5-8, net.

In the Utilities, American Gas tumbled 5 points, but held about a point above the year's low. Electric Bond & Share dropped 2 to a new low at 37 5-8, and closed at 38.

"Answer me," and the towering ape-man glowered fiercely upon the trembling creature, "where did they command you to lead me?" "Into a chamber," whispered the black, "the door of which will be immediately bolted. I shall be a prisoner with you. Then we are to die." A moment the ape-man contemplated him before he said: "If you lead me into a trap I will kill you. But if you lead me to the woman, perhaps we shall all escape. Which will you do?"

As they went through a maze of corridors and rooms the apeman wondered how the Bolgani had learned of his presence in the tower. He was found to the presence in the tower. He was forced to the con clusion that the old man had betrayed him. Finally they stopped before an entrance and the black gently separated the heavy curtains. "She is in there," he said. "Is she alone?" asked Tarzan. "No," replied the black, "look!"

Seizing the black by the wrist, that he might not escape, Tarzan stepped forward and looked. What he beheld was the strangest scene of all the weird ones he had beheld in this uncanny Palace. Before him lay a large chamber, at one end of which was a raised dais of richly carved wood. The central figure upon this dais was a huge lion—the same one that Tarzan had seen escorted through the palace gardens. His golden chains were now fastened to the floor. Upon each side stood four blacks in statuesque rigidity. On golden thrones behind the lion sat three Bolgani.

STUMPY BECOMES AFRAID.

By Thornton W. Burgess, Times there are when it is clear

Times there are when it is clear The foolish only do not fear.

The foolish only do not fear.

Old Mother Nature.

For awhile Stumpy, the crippled young Muskrat, thought the snow as wonderful as it was beautiful. It had made such a change in his small part of the Great World that it was hard for him to believe that the was living right where he always had lived. Only when he dived and swam back under the ice that covered the Smiling Pool did things seem real.

He liked the snow. He liked the feel of it. It wasn't too deep, and he

The liked the snow. Just the same I would rather not be seen at all.

Jerry nodded his head approvingly. "That is sound sense," said he: "There is no danger in being unseen, but there is a great deal of danger in being seen. Unless I am greatly mistaken we have already been seen. That looks like Hooty the Owl just leaving the edge of the Green Forest. He must be hungry to be hunting in the day-time. If any one thinks that Hooty can't see excepting in the dark they don't know him. He has seen us all right and it is time for us to go." Together Jerry and Stumpy dived into the Laughing Brook.

"I see you want everybody to know that you haven't but three legs," said Jerry. The fewer who know it the better.

"Then why are you trying to tell ever tried to tell anybody about it?" asked Jerry.

"What do you mean? When have I ever tried to tell anybody about it?" demanded Stumpy.

"It is all written out in the snow," repliel Jerry. "If Reddy Fox should happen along and see those tracks of yours he would know in a minute that a three-legged Muskrat lives around here and climbs out on that tussock over there. He might have present to a "manifesto" of grievances signed by a large number of Cubans.
